Institute Degree Programs

This packet contains current information regarding the calendar, admissions, degree requirements, regulations, and course offerings. Elwood Bible Baptist Institute reserves the right to withdraw a course, change tuition, and other fees, change the calendar and rules regarding admission, and graduation requirements, and change any other regulations affecting the student body.

Enrollment in Elwood Bible Baptist Institute is a privilege and not a right. Students forfeit this privilege if they do not conform to the standards and ideals of work and life at the Institute and the Institute may insist on the withdrawal of a student at any time that the student does not conform, in the opinion of the Institute, to the spirit of the Institute.

Elwood Bible Baptist institute does not hold, nor does it seek to hold, state accreditation of its degree programs. The Institute is a ministry of Elwood Bible Baptist Church, Elwood, Indiana, an autonomous, local Baptist Church and, as such does not desire, seek, nor accept state approval. The Institute does not seek any other secular recognition of its programs of instruction. No student or graduate should consider his degree as qualifying him to hold a secular position of employment. The degrees, diplomas, certificates awarded signify fulfillment of the prescribed courses of study specifically designed to prepare servants of God for the Christian ministry in local Baptist churches.

If a student desires to transfer to another institution, it is the responsibility of the student to determine if the credits earned at Elwood Bible Institute will be transferable. Each institution of higher learning sets its own standards and accepts credits according to the merits of the individual. Elwood Bible Baptist Institute makes no guarantee that any course will transfer to any other institution. However, several Bible colleges and Institutes will accept transfer credit from Elwood Bible Baptist Institute. Of course, the desire of Elwood Bible Baptist Institute is that students will complete the course of study they initially pursue. Currently, the Institute offers a Bible Institute Diploma (after completing 36 hours of classes) and a Graduate of Theology Diploma (after completing 96 hours of classes).

NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY

Elwood Bible Baptist Institute admits students of any race, color, national, or ethnic origin to all the rights and privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available at the institute. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship programs, and athletic or other Institute –administered programs. Elwood Bible Baptist Institute reserves the right to modify, revoke, or add to any and all regulations at any time, and to cancel the registration of any student for reason of academic deficiency, reproachful testimony, or any other just cause. This includes the right to change credit for courses, fees charges, graduation requirements, and any regulations affecting students whether they are academic or pertain to student life.
